Paris, May 30.

IT is now said for certain, that the Dauphiness is with Child. The Spanish Ambassador in a late Audience he had of the King desired his Majesty would please once for all to Declare the Pretensions he has upon the Crown of Spain, to which his Majesty answered, that he could not yet do it, because he received every day some new information of his Right on several Places. The Chamber established for the punishing of Poysoning begins to act again, and several persons have been lately seized by order thereof; but this seems to many People to be a very great Mistery. The King has given Orders for the working on the Fortifications he is making on the Saar and the Rhine, with all the diligence possible.

Plymouth, May 26. To morrow His Majesties Ship the Assurance will sail from hence with the Merchant Ships under her Convoy for Biboa. The Foresight continues here, expecting the Ships that are to go under her Convoy to the Streights. This day arrived here the True Dealing of this place from Cadiz, the Master confirms the news of the Sapbire's having taken an Algerine of 22 Guns.

Portsmouth, May 22. Thursday in the Evening sailed from Spithead the Faulcon Frigat, Captain Churchil Commander bound for the Streights, and yesterday came to an Anchor at Spithead the Guernsey, Captain Tennent, who came from cruising.

Portsmouth, May 24. On Sunday sailed from Spithead the Ruby Frigat, Captain Allen Commander for the Streights.

Windsor, May 23. This day the Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex waited upon His Majesty in a Body, and presented to His Majesty the following Address.

WHereas a Printed Paper hath been shewed to the Justices in Sessions, Entituled, The Humble Petition of the Grand Jury of the County of Middlesex, and directed to the Honourable Sir Francis Pemberton, Kt. Lord Chief Justice of the Kings Bench, and to the rest of the Honourable Judges of that Court, wherein there are some expressions not at all becoming the Duty of Loyal Subjects to their Sovereign, the said Justices, of which number there were no less than seventeen of the Hundred of Osulston then present, have thought it their Duty, and do Declare, That upon Enquiry they find, That that Petition was presented only by the Jury returned for the Hundred of Osulston, and not by the Grand Jury, Sworn and returned for the Body of the whole County, there being three Juries then returned; and that therefore they must express their dislike to the Contents of that Petition, (as not the Sense of the County) they well-knowing that the time for Calling and Sitting of Parliaments is the Kings Prerogative, and the Law of the Kingdom; and that His Majesty is the only Judge when to call them, and how long they shall Sit; and that it is as unreasonable for His Majesties Subjects to Direct His Majesty in that particular, as it would for His Majesty to confine His Subjects when they shall Sow or Reap their Corn.

We Your Majesties Justices, Humbly beg Your Majesties Pardon, that we have presumed to give Your Majesty the Trouble of this Paper, but we did esteem it a Duty incumbent upon us, to let Your Majesty and Your whole Kingdom see, That Your County of Middlesex did no ways comply with the opinion of those, who presented that Petition; but on the contrary, they do acquiesce in Your Majesties Wisdom in the Administration and Exercise of Your Majesties Government, which we shall be always ready to support with our Lives and Fortunes.

The Humble Address of the City of Bristol, ordered at the general Sessions held there the 1 of May, to be presented to His Majesty.

OUr ordering at the Quarter-Sessions the Publication of His Majesties Royal Declaration touching the Causes moving him to Dissolve the two last Parliaments; and at that time expressing our unanimous Consent, and great satisfaction therein: As also our full Concurrence with the Address of the Grand Jury thereupon delivered into Court the 18th of April last past, which we look upon to be but a secret and undiscerned acknowledgment for so Signal a Grace and Favour, vouchsafed by His Sacred Majesty to all His Liege Subjects, in that unparallel'd Gracious Declaration, Do as a further Testimony of our most exalted Sence of His Majesties Grace and Goodness, imparted to His Majesties Subjects therein; As also of the great Felicity and Happiness we and all His good Subjects do enjoy under His most admirably Wise, Regular, and Gracious Government, Do Return our real, unfeigned, and hearty acknowledgments to His most Sacred Majesty, under whose most excellent Conduct all good Men think themselves safe in the enjoyment of their Religion, Liberties and Properties; for the preservation whereof, there can no greater Security be had or hoped for, than the Laws of the Kingdom, and His Majesties Royal Word to Govern by them; whilst the Designs of ill Men labour the Subversion of all, under the specious Pretence of Reformation, though by the same Methods that brought to pass all the Miseries of Usurpation and Tyranny that this Kingdom lately groan'd under.

Nor ought we to be less thankful to His Sacred Majesty, for the assurance he hath given His People to extirpate Popery, redress Grievances, and to Govern according to Law; than that he is Graciously pleased to mention the calling of frequent Parliaments; which Counsel added to the Crown will in all likelyhood produce the good Effects of removing Fears, detection of all Plots and Machinations
